► New Smoking Regulations

On Feb. 5, 2019, the Santa Clara City Council adopted an Ordinance that expanded smoking restrictions in many public areas and multi-unit residences. Public areas where smoking is prohibited under the new ordinance include open air dining areas, public parks, around ATMs and transit stops, and public places being used for a public event. Smoking is also prohibited in all enclosed areas of residential structures with two or more units. To learn more about smokefree Santa Clara, visit SantaClaraCA.gov/smokefreesantaclara.

► Egg-Stravaganza
